

Thank you for praying!!! Ministry news from Sheryl Nelson (HOWe Things Are...)

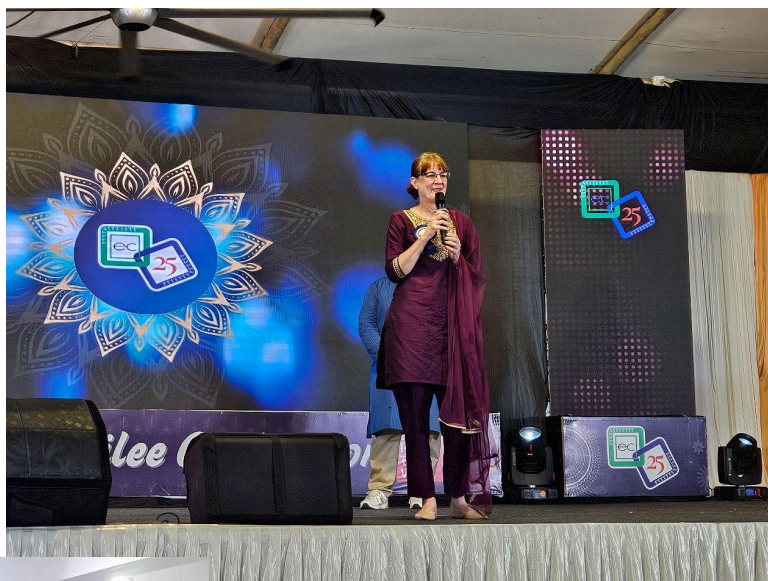

February 2025

I returned from Trip #1 (India) – safe*, healthy**, and having made good connections with colleagues in Siliguri and Chennai personally and through work meetings on timely topics. I leave for trip #2 (Kenya) Feb 27 (27 Feb - 14 March). Please pray for safety, health, and good connections in Kenya.

*safe with the exception of a few bruises from various minor injuries, which is more par for the course for me than a specific result of traveling, **healthy except for minor stomach unhappiness due to delicious but very spicy food left: my first visit to Indian Ocean; below: at the big celebration in Chennai. I gave a ~ two minute speech in a 4 hour program (in spiffy Indian dress purchased for the occasion)

Left: the celebration the day before the big celebration. Office colleagues enjoying and recording our “Bollywood” dance moves on stage.

Right: after Bengal safari where we saw actual Himalayan black bears and tigers:my height compared to theirs.
