

“Worthy” of receiving the good news

The Bible Society in Malawi (Africa) is working on a Bible Translation for Malawi Sign Language. Eight Bible stories have been completed and are being shared for testing and feedback.

The Bible translation team reports that every time the stories are shared, people are moved.

One lady cried watching the video. She said, “I did not know that people out there regard the deaf as worthy of receiving the Good News. I am thankful to God that he loves me. After seeing these videos my life will not be the same. I will leave my wayward life because I know God has a purpose for me.”

Pray that God will open the door for these videos to be shown on national television to reach even more deaf who have never heard the Good News of Jesus.

I very much enjoyed my short trip to Arizona this month. I’m so glad I was able to see some of you while I was there. It was also fun talking to people who stopped by my Wycliffe display table at church.

Prayer

- Thank God that a thyroid issue has finally been resolved. It was causing many symptoms including extreme grumpiness and anxiety. It is nice to be “normal” again. I didn’t even know how “abnormal” I was until the issue resolved!
- Thank God for a one time gift and one new monthly supporter! I’m thankful for those who give and pray to make my ministry possible.
- Pray for God to call more people to become IT Missionaries (raising their own support to be able to serve God using their technology skills).
- Pray for stamina for me. My plan was to reduce how much I travelled when I got married. It’s increased! I have a yet another work trip (to Calgary) in December. Pray for me to be wise about how much I travel and to graciously say “no” a whole lot more.
